

Please do not allow the federal standard to over-ride the Wisconsin do-not-call standard. If bankers or others businesses are concerned about the number of laws they need to comply with; they can voluntarily adopt the tuffest standard that would meet or exceed all existing laws and do us all a favor. This would go a long way in addressing the number 1 consumer complaint.